

Weekly intercession
for all caught up in the coronavirus outbreak

Sunday:

The Church.

May we be a source of hope, compassion and loving service.

Monday:

The NHS.

All who give of their utmost in the healing and caring arts,
often at risk to themselves.
The emergency services.

Tuesday:

Those who work in essential services;
energy, food production and distribution, transport, scientists.

Wednesday:

Those who are finding isolation difficult or unbearable.
The newly diagnosed and those who support them.
Those living in countries with inadequate health care provision.

Thursday:

Those in hospital.
Those who are known to us.
Workers in intensive care units and medical supplies industries.

Friday:

Those whose lives are coming to a close.
Workers in palliative care.

Saturday:

Those who watch and wait in anxiety.
Those who mourn.
Those who offer support and help in bereavement.

Weekly intercession
for all caught up in the coronavirus outbreak

Sunday:

The Church.

May we be a source of hope, compassion and loving service.

Monday:

The NHS.

All who give of their utmost in the healing and caring arts,
often at risk to themselves.
The emergency services.

Tuesday:

Those who work in essential services;
energy, food production and distribution, transport, scientists.

Wednesday:

Those who are finding isolation difficult or unbearable.
The newly diagnosed and those who support them.
Those living in countries with inadequate health care provision.

Thursday:

Those in hospital.
Those who are known to us.
Workers in intensive care units and medical supplies industries.

Friday:

Those whose lives are coming to a close.
Workers in palliative care.

Saturday:

Those who watch and wait in anxiety.
Those who mourn.
Those who offer support and help in bereavement.